Auction Sale of Dry Goods, Notions, White Goods, Laces, Hamburgs, Blankets, Mattings. Carpets.

$65,000 Stock by the yard. Goods of

Julius Sycle's Sons,

To be Auctioned at YOUR OWN PRICE

Entire Stock of

Julius Sycle's Sons

To be Auctioned by the Yard at Your Price.

10:30 A. M. Tuesday, Oct. 2, '06' No. 6 E. Broad St. Your Price Will Prevail at every Sale

Greatest opportunity ever extended to Richmond and vicinity. The well-known firm of Julius Sycle's Sons has retired from the Dry Goods and Department Store, and will devote their time to the Ready to Wear Store for Men, Women and Children. The building No. 6 EAST BROAD has been leased for a short period to dispose of the stock daily by auction. We had a number of offers from merchants who were eager for our stock, but we preferred giving the Richmond public the advantage of this great merchandise sacrifice. The auctions commence and will continue DAILY, at 10 A. M., 3 P. M. and 8 P. M., until every dollar's worth of the $65,000 stock is disposed of to the highest bidder, regardless of cost. It must go quickly, either by the case, piece or yard. The sale includes over 3,000 yards of Fall Dress Goods, such as Lansdownes, Panamas, Broadcloths, Serges, Henriettas, Prunellas, Poplins, Plaids and Checked Cheviots, that have never been removed from the cases they left the mills in. We placed one order last winter, and the manufacturers would not cancel the order. They must go, such as Art Goods of all descriptions, Embroideries, Ribbons, Persian and Pull Braid Trimmings, Silks, French Nainsooks, Dotted Swisses, and thousands of other articles not mentioned. 1,200 pairs of Blankets, Quilts, Lace Curtains and Table Linens are in storage. They were also purchased last spring, and the order could not be canceled. They must go at auction. A grand opportunity for dressmakers to get findings at your price.

Tuesday, Oct. 2d, 1906, at 10:30 A.

6 E. Broad St.—Sale Starts Tuesday, October 2d, at 10:30—6 E. Broad St. GEO. W. MAYO, Auctioneer.

... NEWS OF THE SUBURBS ...

FULTON NEWS

week. There were about thirty-five of his little friends present, and theroughly enjoyed the bountiful spread, games, music, etc.

Mr. John McCune, who lives a few mile-from Crewe, lost his home by fire the past week. Nothing was saved.

The body of Mr. H. Dyson was brought from Richmond, at which place he died on Wednesday, and was burbed in the Crewe Cemetery Thursday.

Hey. J. W. Kincheloe is at Jonesboro conducting a meeting.

The ladies of the Baptist Church coa-

FAIRMOUNT NEWS

B of every hottle of Hostetter's StomBitters in a guarantee of its wonfor morit. You are therefore not mak an expertment when you decide to this sovereign remedy.

HOSTETTER'S

Avenue.

Mrs. Robert Wortham are among the new residents of Chestnat Hill.

Mrs. William Moore, who has been quite ill for same time, is improving at her home on Fifth Avenue.

Miss. Annile. Smith, of Fourth Avenue, who has been spending the summer in North Carolina, is expected home next to

HIGHLAND SPRINGS

CHESTNUT HILL AND HIGHLAND PARK

OF 53 YEARS

POLE GREEN

GLENDALE BRIEFS